Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter and Security Agreement which were sent to you in August of 1982. These documents were recorded under your recordation number 13718 on August 4, 1982.

As Fremont & Western, Inc. (the debtor party) has now paid its loan in full, this is to certify that our security interest may be released. Please consider this letter as the document of formal release.

Enclosed is a check in the amount of $10.00 in favor of the Interstate Commerce Commission in payment of the required recordation fee.

Very truly yours,

LINCOLN INDUSTRIES, INC.
